

1. Double-click on the Patriot Config logo

*If nothing comes out, check if it is already running in the System Tray (bottom right of the screen).

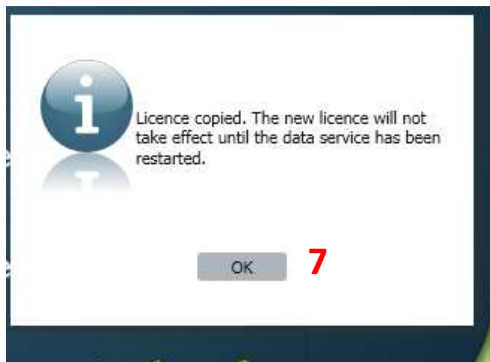

2. Stop the Data Service by pressing the stop button. Wait until the Play button becomes bright green.
3. Stop the Task Service by pressing the stop button. Wait until the Play button becomes bright green.
4. Click on the Install License button. A new window will appear.

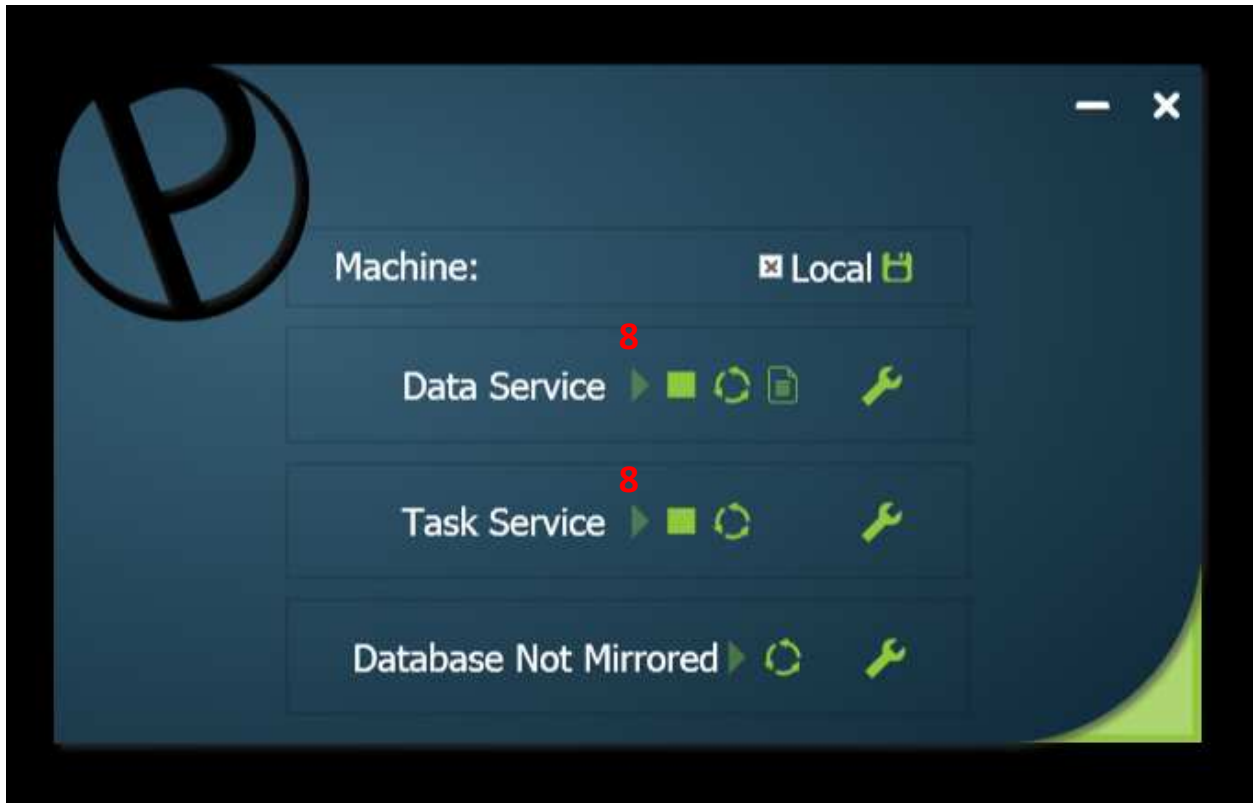

5. Select the license file that you have saved.

6. Click Open. A new window will appear:

7. Click OK

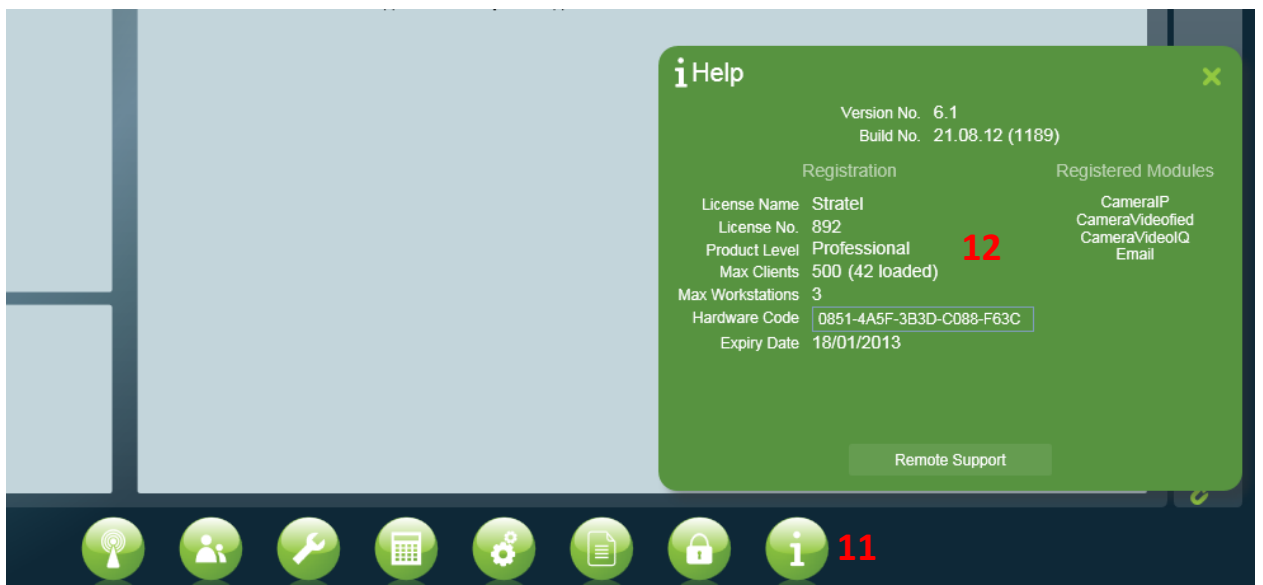

8. Click Ok. Then Restart Data Services and Task Services. Wait until the Stop button become bright green.
9. Double Click on the Patriot 6 logo.

10. Enter the default user name (sa) and password (sa) and click Log In.

11. Once logged in to patriot, click on the Information button. A window will appear.

12. Check the License Name and Expiry date to make sure the license has been put it correctly.